Master Services Agreement (excerpt)

Between Legion Capital Ltd ("Legion") and Arvanta Payments Pvt Ltd ("Arvanta") · Effective 1 April 2023

Recitals

A. Legion is a non-banking financial company registered with the Reserve Bank of India.
B. Arvanta is authorised by the Reserve Bank of India as a payment aggregator (authorised since 2021).

§2 Term and renewal

The initial term runs from 1 April 2023 to 31 March 2028. The Agreement renews automatically for a further 2 years unless either party gives written notice at least 6 months before 31 March 2028.

§4 Pricing

4.1 Legion pays a blended processing fee of 0.20% of payment volume across cards, UPI and net banking.
4.2 Settlement: T+1 for UPI; T+2 for card transactions.
4.3 Dispute (chargeback) handling: ₹150 per dispute.

§7 Data

7.1 All Legion data, including payment and card data, is stored and processed only in India.
7.2 The parties signed a Data Processing Agreement on 12 May 2023, aligned to the Digital Personal Data Protection Act, 2023 (DPA updated 2024).

§8 Liability and indemnity

8.1 Arvanta's aggregate liability is capped at 12 months' fees.
8.2 Arvanta indemnifies Legion for losses caused by Arvanta's negligence, wilful misconduct or breach of law.

§9 Volume commitment and exit

9.1 Legion shall give 90 days' written notice before reducing the share of its payment volume processed by Arvanta.
9.2 Legion commits to route at least 80% of its payment volume through Arvanta until 31 March 2028. If Legion's share with Arvanta falls below 80% before that date, Legion pays a one-time early-exit fee of ₹25 lakh.

§11 Governing law

Indian law. Courts in Mumbai have exclusive jurisdiction.

§12 Security incidents

Arvanta notifies Legion of any security incident within 2 hours and reports to CERT-In within 6 hours as required by law. Legion and the RBI have audit and inspection rights over Arvanta's services.

Legion Capital, Arvanta Payments, Brevis Pay, Sentrix Risk, Vireo Finance, Coral Bank and Tamra Bank are fictional.
