Customer Insights Report — Q3 2026

July–September 2026 · Includes results of the Brevis Pay pilot (2% of traffic, August–September)

§1 Headline metrics

- Merchant NPS: 41 (industry benchmark 50).
- Cost to handle a support ticket: about ₹180.

§2 Settlements and churn

Settlement-delay complaints about Arvanta rose sharply (see support ticket data). Four large merchants — M-104, M-221, M-307 and M-412, together about ₹38 crore a month — have told their account managers they may leave over settlement delays. Monthly merchant churn reached 2.1% in September, up from 1.4% in Q1 FY27.

About 900 failed EMI auto-debit complaints arrive each month; in 14% of them the borrower was wrongly charged a late fee.

§3 Brevis pilot results (2% of traffic)

Measure	Arvanta	Brevis (pilot)
Mobile checkout conversion	baseline	+3.1 points (mobile only)
Average refund turnaround	5.2 days	3.0 days
Complaints from Coral Bank and Tamra Bank customers	baseline	40% higher

The pilot sample is small; desktop conversion showed no meaningful difference.

§4 Reach and reviews

- Brevis checkout supports 11 Indian languages; Arvanta supports 4.
- 22% of 1-star app reviews in Q3 mention "payment failed".

Legion Capital, Arvanta Payments, Brevis Pay, Sentrix Risk, Vireo Finance, Coral Bank and Tamra Bank are fictional.
